|-----------|-------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|---------------|
| 1  | 1995        | There are many things that I would like to say to you                             |             |               |
| 2  | 2009        | And after he's been hooked, I'll play the one that's on his heart                 |             |               |
| 3  | 2003        | When I pull up out front, you see the Benz on dubs                                |             |               |
| 4  | 2007        | Ain't that the age a girl gets really dirty                                       |             |               |
| 5  | 2008        | I'm alright I'm just fine and you're a tool                                       |             |               |
| 6  | 2006        | But think twice, that's my only advice                                            |             |               |
| 7  | 2000        | I said it'd cost her name, a six digit number and a date with me tomorrow at nine |             |               |
| 8  | 2005        | Never did no harm                                                                 |             |               |
| 9  | 1997        | All of the time but I'm never sure why I need you                                 |             |               |
| 10 | 2006        | How could this be done by such a smiling sweetheart?                              |             |               |
| 11 | 2009        | Been there, done that, messed around                                              |             |               |
| 12 | 2002        | Cos I feel like bustin' loose and I feel like touchin' you                        |             |               |
| 13 | 2008        | I'll miss the catch if they throw me the ball                                     |             |               |
| 14 | 2001        | In summer we can taste the rain                                                   |             |               |
| 15 | 1995        | When I hold you, baby, feel your heartbeat close to me                            |             |               |
