|-----------|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|---------------|
| 1  | 1966        | You make everything groovy                                                                     |             |               |
| 2  | 1975        | Where did you come from, baby?                                                                 |             |               |
| 3  | 1976        | What a terrible thing to lose                                                                  |             |               |
| 4  | 1979        | She gives me hot and cold fever, thenshe leaves me in a cool, cool sweat                   |             |               |
| 5  | 1981        | Everything she do just turns me on                                                             |             |               |
| 6  | 1997        | My love, she throws me like a rubberball                                                   |             |               |
| 7  | 1993        | Talk like that, I'll be an angel                                                               |             |               |
| 8  | 1999        | Turn the lights off, carry me home                                                             |             |               |
| 9  | 2002        | I wanna kiss you every minute, everyhour, every day                                        |             |               |
| 10 | 2002        | I can try to pretend, I can try to forget,but it's driving me mad, going out of myhead |             |               |
| 11 | 2004        | While everyone's lost, the battle is won                                                       |             |               |
| 12 | 2005        | Been tryna let it go, trying to keep myeyes closed                                         |             |               |
| 13 | 2006        | Dreams, dreams, of when we had juststarted things                                          |             |               |
| 14 | 2008        | You're vain, your games, you'reinsecure                                                    |             |               |
| 15 | 2024        | For a while there it was rough                                                                 |             |               |
